

MEGAN BLAKE and TOUT SUITE “THE TRAVEL KITTY”

Megan is an actress and media pet expert based in Malibu, California. She also hosts the Genesis Awards recognized Animal Attractions TV, the Number 1 Pet Series on PBS produced by Emmy Award winning Pineridge Television. BUT, she doesn't just play an animal lover on TV. Megan has six rescues of her own: two cats, two dogs, and two horses. She literally found all of them on the street except for the horses who she rescued from imminent slaughter after one had been made dangerous from abuse. Tout Suite, The Travel Kitty, guest-stars on the series, and has traveled over 70,000 miles with her, and has completed a book series chronicling his adventures!

Megan has worked on set with wolves and mountain lions, endurance races her Arabian horse, Starfire, has served as a film set animal wrangler and trained her dog, Spirit, to act in two films, one in which the pooch played opposite Golden Globe nominee David Carradine and the other in which she, with only three legs, graced the stage with dancers from the New York City Ballet.

Megan is a contributing writer/producer for Animal Attractions TV, which won an Honorable Mention at the 2008 Genesis Awards, presented by the Humane Society of the United States. As an animal spokesperson, she serves as a media pet expert, hosts animal events and makes media and celebrity appearances to benefit animal rescue organizations, and gives daily pet tips on The Vegas Entertainment Network. An award winning published poet, she donates her poetry and art work to raise money for animal shelters and is a member of the Humane Society of the United States and the ASPCA Guardians.

As an actress, Megan has played in 25-plus feature films alongside some of the biggest names in the business including Academy Award winner Elizabeth Taylor in The Sweet Bird of Youth, Golden Globe nominee Christina Ricci and Emmy winner Lisa Kudrow in The Opposite of Sex, Academy Award nominee John C. Reilly and Will Ferrell in Talladega Nights, and Golden Globe nominee David Carradine in The Puzzle In The Air, and she has appeared on more than 20 television series including the Emmy Award winning Suddenly Susan with Brooke Shields, Step By Step, with Suzanne Sommers, Emmy Award Winning The Days of Our Lives, and critically-acclaimed Dawson's Creek. Her current film projects include a beautiful piece about horses with Mickey Rooney, a Sci-fi project, Eyeborgs, with The Highlander, Adrian Paul, in which she saves the world, and an animated feature film, The Magistical, in which she voices the central character, a little boy.

Megan, true to her Southern roots, sits on the Board of Directors of the Greensboro Ballet in North Carolina, is a Magna Cum Laude graduate of Georgia Tech, was a speech writer for the Governor of Georgia, is a guest speaker at Universities including the University of Richmond Law School in Richmond, VA and the University of North Carolina, and is a former Miss Georgia.
